Dear Linn
Well what can I say? We've lived in the same room together for 9 months. We've seen little bits of the best and worst of each other but mostly the insides.
You've lived through my fits and I've lived through your feet. We've laughed, yelled, and ignored at each other and somehow we've come all the way through without a divorce.

Dear Ann;

I'm glad you're here at this school and I'm glad I know you and your family. I may have ~~enemies~~ or mild dislikes where you have friends but it doesn't bother me to much. In the beginning of the year you didn't look like the type that does what you do, I judged you wrong completely and for my sake I'm sorry I ever tried to judge you. It hasn't been a good year because hardly anyone relaxed but I enjoyed it and I hope you did. Come back next year and work a little harder so that your parents won't bother you and you will have a lot more fun. Good luck

SBP'S

But you who walk facing the sun, what images drawn on the earth can hold you?
 You who travel with the wind, what weather-vane shall direct your course?
 What man's law shall bind you if you break your yoke but upon no man's prison door?
 What laws shall you fear if you dance but stumble against no man's iron chains?
 And who is he that shall bring you to judgment if you tear off your garment yet leave it in no man's path?

Dear Linn,

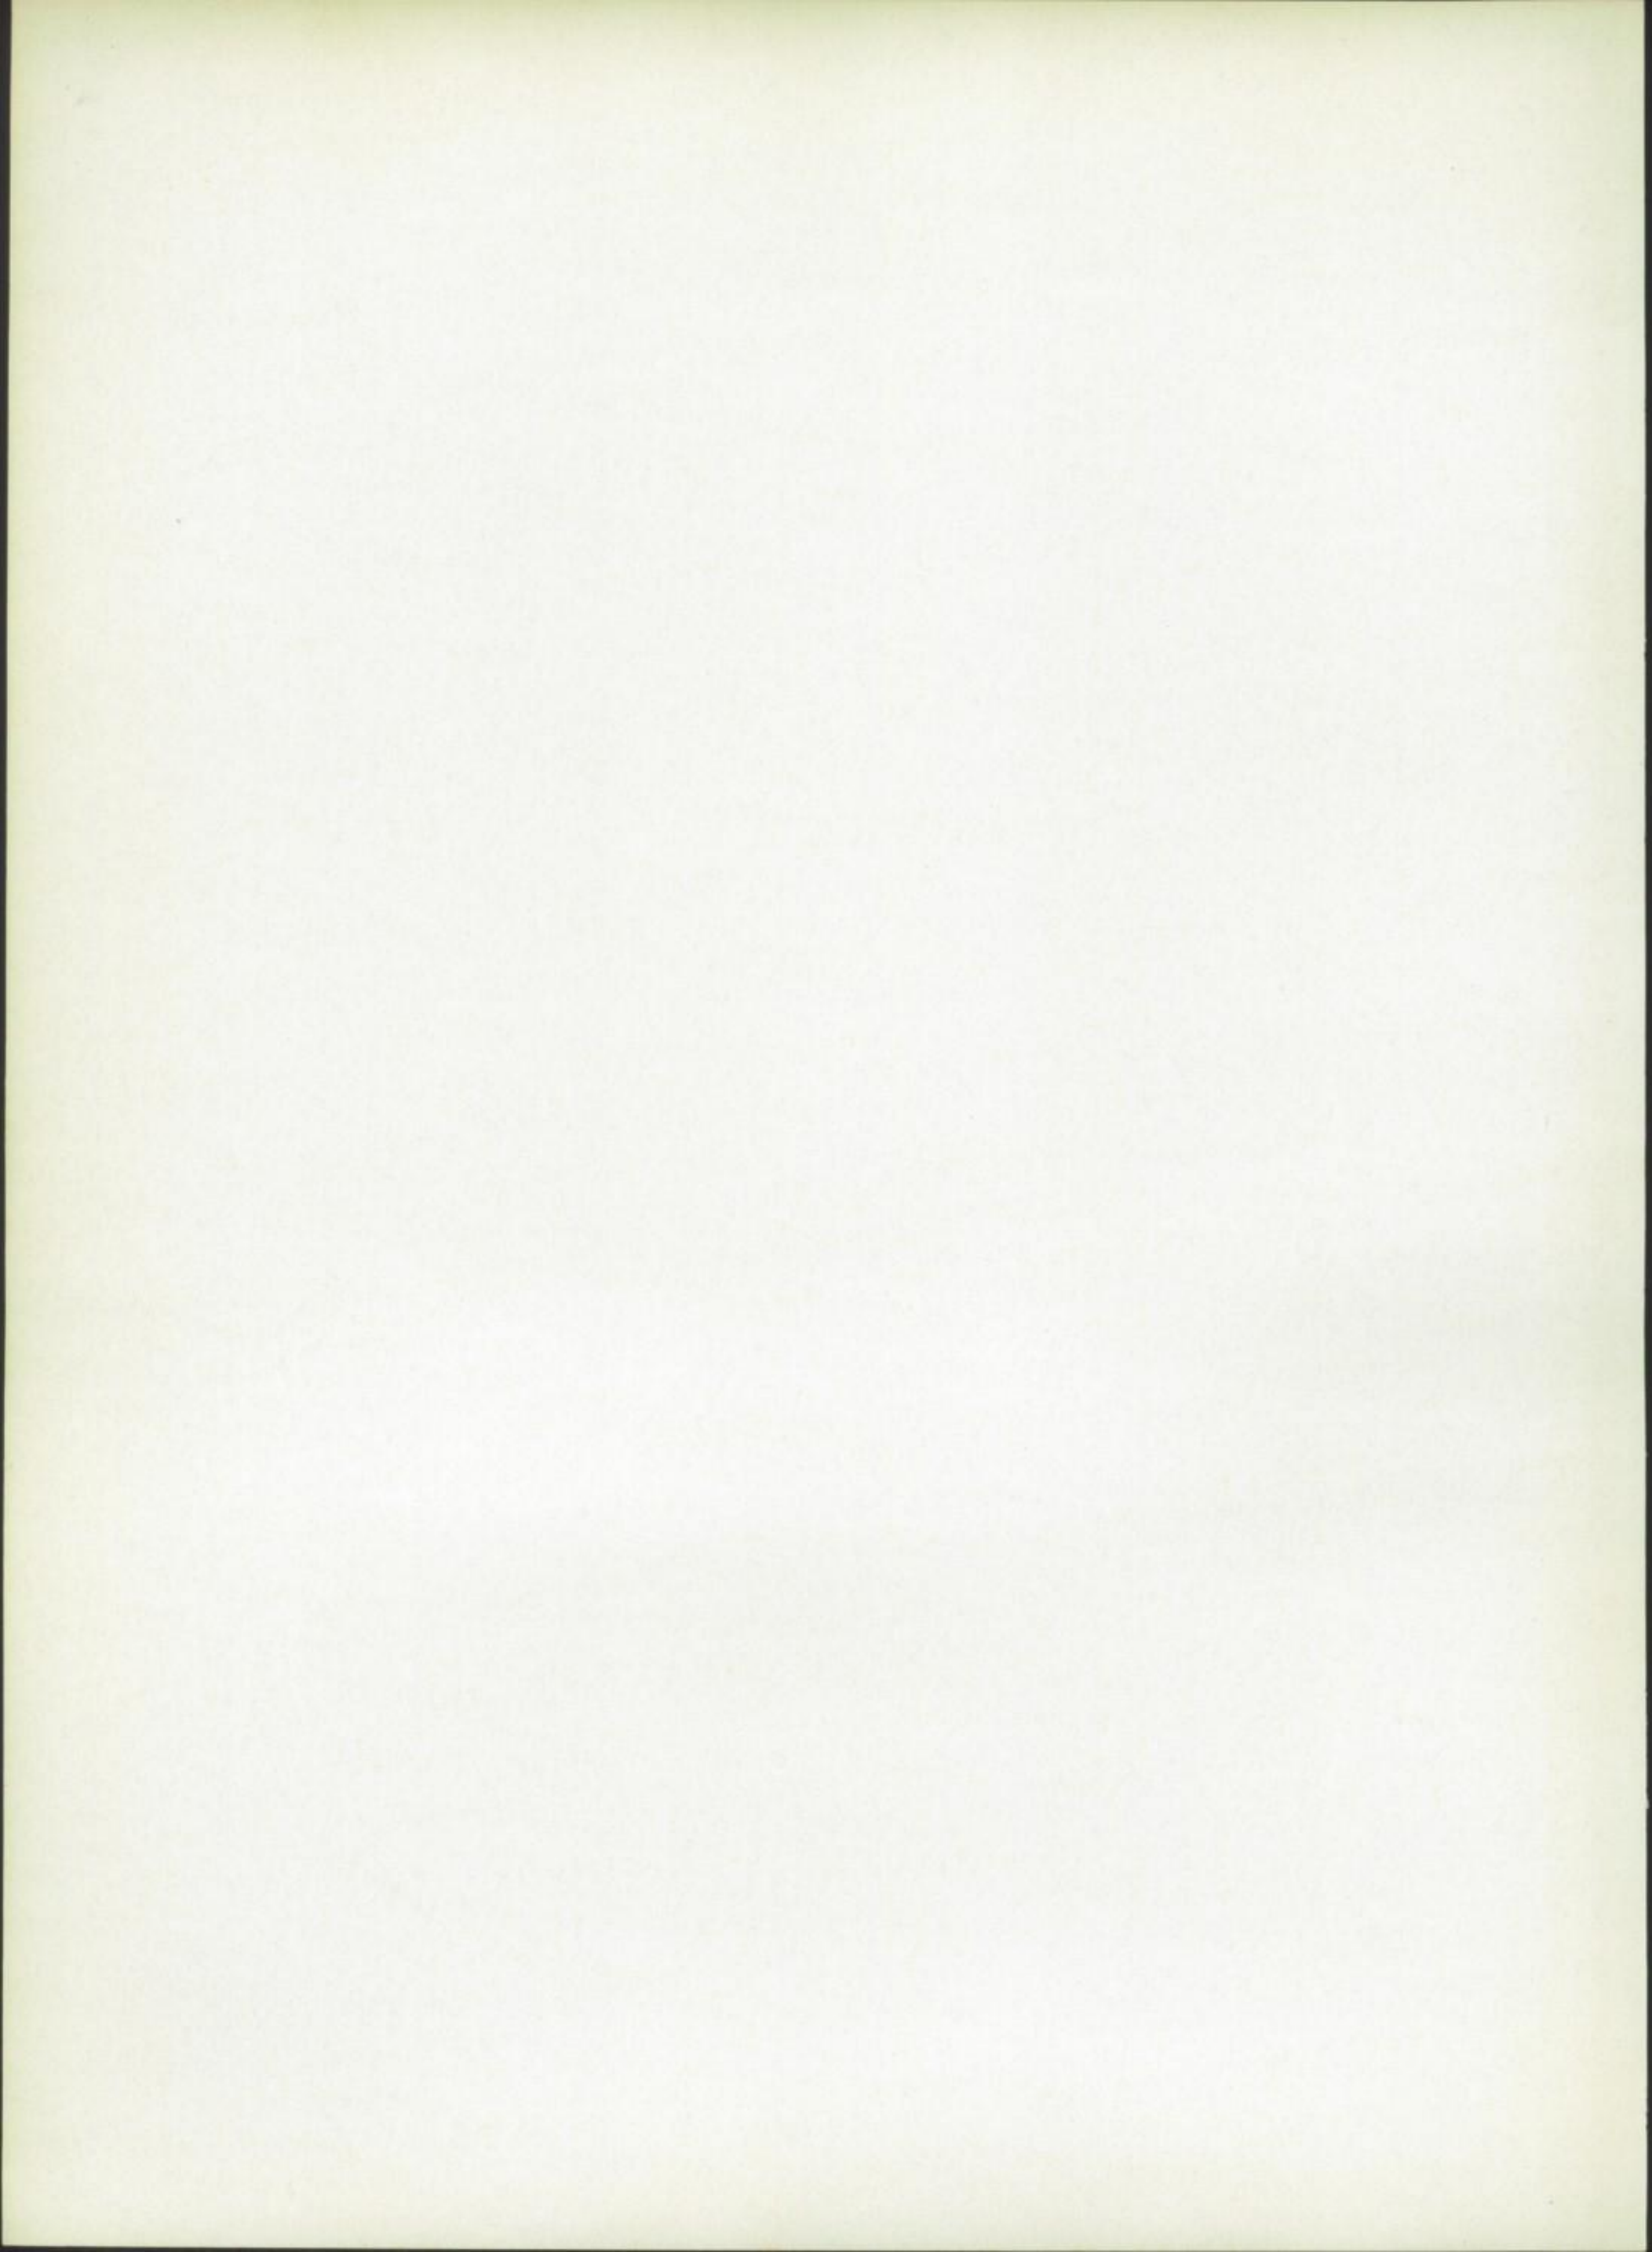

It's strange how you all of a sudden fell into my life. Someone once asked me if it was ever a wonder how people do that to me. It wasn't until now. All of a sudden you seemed to fit naturally into my world. But maybe it was almost too natural. I can't say. Anyway, I'm glad. I'm glad because it's good to have you smile at me and because without knowing you helped me write a song we performed tonight. I'm sorry we didn't do a better job. I got my job in New Hampshire this summer so maybe I'll get to see you. ~~I think~~ I think I'm going to miss you this summer - I'm like that. When you want to think of me, listen to my record. This is just supposed to add a little more.

Love,
Steve
